LARGEST CIRCULATION IN THE CITY.

It will probably remain fair or clear for the next 24 hours.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The examinations for admission to the City Normal School began this morning at 9 o'clock at the Normal School Hall.

Box Wm. D. KELLEY will deliver an address on the finances to-morrow evening at Robinson's Opera-house.

General Thomas L. Young addressed the residents of the Twenty-fifth ward, Saturday night, in Strong's Hall.

The Police Court, on Wednesday, the opening day of the Exposition, will begin its session at seven o'clock in the morning.

The Irish American Centennial Guards will shoulder muskets to-morrow at Hammond-street Station Hall. Captain Welsh will supervise affairs.

The Republicans of the Fifteenth ward meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Outer-street Engine-house for the purpose of forming a Hayes and Young Club.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER HUFF was thrown from his horse on East Front street, Saturday afternoon, and dragged some distance. He was severely bruised and cut.

Burglars last night entered the residence of Mr. W. W. Sherwood, No. 387 John street, and stole a large lot of clothing. They effected an entrance through the kitchen. No arrests.

MAYOR JOHNSTON, Saturday afternoon, after inspection, swore in nearly all his police force, and also the forty special police of the Exposition. The appointments of Captains and Lieutenants will be sent to the next meeting of Common Council for confirmation.

GEO. CARSON, the man who some time ago swindled the German Savings Bank out of $2,500 on a forged check, was brought to this city this morning by officer Kuehman and Col. Snelbaker. He was arrested in St. Louis where he and his wife attempted to swindle another bank.

Rev. R. NEWTON, D. D., of Philadelphia, rector of the Epping Protestant Episcopal Church, and editor of the Periodicals of the American Sunday-school Union, preached yesterday afternoon in the St. John's M. E. Church to a large attendance of Sunday-school scholars.

ISAAC JOHNSTON was assaulted at 11 o'clock on Saturday night by two highwaymen, on Fourth street, between Main and Sycamore. Johnston was knocked down by a slung-shot, after which he was searched, but had nothing valuable in his pockets. The highwaymen made their escape.

MR. AUG. DONNELLY, prominently connected with the printing business of this city for many years, died at his residence, corner of Ninth and Elm streets, yesterday morning, in the 46th year of his age. The funeral occurs this afternoon. It will be attended by the various societies to which he belonged. He leaves a wife and three children to mourn his loss.

JOHN HENRY, a man who, on Saturday, bore down on Mr. Gebhardt, the policeman of Eighth-street Park, with a club and a long-bladed knife, and was assigned in the Police Court this morning on a charge of assault with intent to kill. He waived an examination, and was bound over to the Grand Jury in the sum of $800.

THE LOOKOUT HOUSE and grounds were crowded to overflowing yesterday and last evening, and the happy Harp says that it was the largest and most orderly attendance of the season. The free concerts by the Hessian Band, the wonderful performance of Weiffenbach, the drummer, and the cooling breezes of that locality, make the Lookout House exceedingly popular with many.

WM. KUHLMAN, a brewer employed in the Lafayette Brewery, on Saturday afternoon was placing kegs on a hoisting machine when the rope broke and he fell, striking him into the cellar fifty feet below, and breaking his back, left arm and three ribs. He was taken to his home, No. 41 Dunlap street, where he afterward died. Justice Evelt held an inquest, and the jury returned a verdict of accidental death. They also condemned the rope as unsafe.

REV. EARL CRANSTON, who succeeds Rev. D. H. Moore as pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, has arrived in the city, and registered at the Grand Hotel. Mr. Cranston is well known and deservedly popular both socially and as a pastor, and the members of his new congregation may be congratulated upon having secured his services. He brings with him the best wishes and highest regards of his friends at Evansville, his late field of labor, and at Jacksonville, Ill., where he labored successfully for many years.

DAY AFTER TO-MORROW the Grand Industrial Procession, like some huge elephant, will stamp the ground, winding its great length through our principal streets, showing to our visitors from sister cities what Cincinnati can do when she is once thoroughly aroused, and in proportion to the honor and credit which our city will derive from this mammoth enterprise, she should thank its originator, Colonel William St. Martin, who has worked with such unrelenting zeal to the one great end, the final success of the Industrial Parade.

SIX CHILDREN, five girls and one boy, on Saturday afternoon, at Fuller's Mills, on the Little Miami river, got into a skiff and rowed out into the river. A hole in the stern of the boat, used for letting out water, became uncorked and the boat began filling rapidly. The children were all thrown into the water by the sinking of the skiff, and one little girl, 12 years old, daughter of an employee of the mills, was drowned. Three of the other girls sank together, and were found at the bottom, clasped in each other's arms. They were taken out, and, happily, resuscitated. The remaining girl and boy were also rescued. The body of the drowned girl was afterward recovered.

Oh How Sleepy!

The proprietors of the Gibson have found it necessary to add 200 beds to the sleeping department of their house, all at which are expected to be filled by the Exposition visitors. The question now does Mr. Gibson think that our guests have come here to sleep or to see the Exposition?

Base-Ball.

The return game between the Chicago White Stockings and the Cincinnati Reds was played Saturday afternoon upon the Ludlow grounds. There was quite a large crowd in attendance, most of whom, drawing their inference from the preceding game between these two clubs, were prepared to see the White Stockings completely annihilated. The players themselves, however, knowing the mettle of their opponents, did not feel so confident, and as the game approached near and nearer the ninth inning, and the break on the tally sheet seemed to widen, even the most sanguine of the Cincinnati partisans lost hope—and the sight of the following score at the end of the last inning capped the climax and all hands wilted:

Innings..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Cincinnati..... 0 0 1 0 0 0 0 1-5
Chicago..... 1 1 0 0 0 0 0 0-10

The Gazette Typos and the Newport Barracks Nine played a game Saturday afternoon on the Barracks parade ground resulting as follows: Typos, 10; Barracks Nine, 24.

The new Walnut Hills Club defeated the Hollis, of Newport, on the Trotting Park grounds Saturday afternoon by the score of 13 to 11.

The Linwoods defeated the Woodburns Saturday by the score of 26 to 14.

The Mills Club defeated the Paper nine Saturday. This was the second defeat for the latter at the same hands. Score, 22 to 14.

The Starving Irish yesterday walked over the Avenue, on Ross Hill, in splendid style. Score, 18 to 8.

The Ludlows go to Louisville on Tuesday. They will return, however, in time to play the Cincinnati Reds on Thursday.

The Ludlows play the White Stockings to-day. A big game is expected.

The Anchors and Favorites played an interesting game on Taylor's bottom on Saturday. The score stood 26 to 24 in favor of the Favorites.

The Vanguard Base-ball Club defeated the Crocena, yesterday, by a score of 31 to 16.

The Novelty Kickers defeated the Big Oaks Saturday afternoon by a score of 28 to 18.

The Daisies defeated the White Stockings, of Mary and Vine streets, Saturday afternoon, by a score of 25 to 12.

In a game of base-ball Saturday afternoon, between the Outcasts and the Morning Stars, the latter were defeated by the score of 21 to 17. The score by innings is as follows:

Innings..... 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9
Outcasts..... 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0-0
Morning Stars..... 5 3 0 1 3 4-21

THE GREAT PARADE.

The Line of March—The Men, the Music and the Military.

The four hundred wagons to take part in the great Industrial parade on Wednesday next have been classified and arranged into divisions and sections, each division headed by a band and under the supervision of a marshal and assistants. The following is the order and the names of the marshals and assistants:

The order and line of march has been fixed as below, the turns being as few as possible, as the wagons and teams will, many of them, be large and somewhat difficult to handle on the corners. It will be observed that, although but few streets are named, the distance traveled on each one is unusually great, and that our citizens will thus have an excellent opportunity of viewing this immense procession, which, by the way, is to start promptly at 9 in the morning, in order to give ample time for a review before the Exposition opens.

THE LINE OF MARCH.

The parade will start from the corner of Freeman and Eighth streets, and will move north on Freeman to Liberty, East on Liberty to Central avenue, south on Central avenue to Fourth, east on Fourth to Walnut, north on Walnut to Twelfth, west on Twelfth to Race, and North on Race to Hamilton road, where the procession will disband.

THE ORDER.

The military, police, Commissioners, etc., included in the list below, will head the procession. They will form, resting on Freeman at Eighth, deploying westwardly on Eighth street, with the following order:

Mounted Police.
Meisner's Kapelle Band.
Chief of Police and Staff.
Police.
Burgess Band.
Colonel Mason and Staff.
United States Troops.
Brand's Band.
Colonel Robinson and Staff.
Ohio National Guard.
Grand Marshal A. Hickenlooper and Staff.
Mayor, Exposition Commissioners and City Officials.

The First Division of the Industrial Department will follow. It will also form on Eighth and Freeman streets, deploying eastwardly on Eighth, and will fall into the line of march up Freeman as the military passes. The following are the Marshals and Assistants:

Reid's Dining Rooms.
First Division.
Marshal William St. Martin and Staff, commanding First Division.
Assistant Marshal Enoch Taylor and Staff.
Assistant Marshal Elmer Ball and Staff.
Assistant Marshal S. K. Hayes and Staff.
Assistant Marshal S. L. Campbell and Staff.
Fourth Section.

SECOND DIVISION.
The Second Division will form resting on Ninth and Freeman, and deploying eastwardly on Ninth, and a portion forming on Richmond, with the following officials:

Great Western Band.
Marshal J. F. Blackburn and Staff, commanding Second Division.
Assistant Marshal Lewis Weitzel and Staff.
First Section.
Assistant Marshal J. W. Gano and Staff.
Second Section.
Meyers Band.
Assistant Marshal Amor Smith and Staff.
Third Section.
Assistant Marshal Henry De Bus and Staff.
Fourth Section.

THIRD DIVISION.
The third division will form resting on Freeman at Court and deploying eastwardly on Court street, as follows:

Hessian Band.
Marshal John Groves and Staff, commanding Third Division.
Assistant Marshal Wm. S. Munson and Staff.
First Section.
Assistant Marshal Chas. Jacobs and Staff.
Second Section.
Turner Band.
Assistant Marshal Jas. Morgan and Staff.
Third Section.
Assistant Marshal Thomas Paxton and Staff.
Fourth Section.

FOURTH DIVISION.
The fourth division will form in the same manner on Clark street, deploying eastwardly:

Malneville Band.
Marshal R. M. Moore and Staff, commanding Fourth Division.
Assistant Marshal J. W. Malone and Staff.
First Section.
Assistant Marshal James Curran and Staff.
Second Section.
Washington Band.
Assistant Marshal H. G. Armstrong and Staff.
Third Section.
Assistant Marshal Jno. T. Wachtman and Staff.
Fourth Section.

Each division will probably contain from 100 to 150 wagons.

Amusements.

THE GRAND OPERA-HOUSE.—To-night is the grand opening night at this house, which will introduce the new stock company to our play-goers, in Bartley Campbell's celebrated "Bulls and Bears."

Everything has been expressly prepared for this occasion, aiming to make it one of the memorable nights in the history of the Grand, and if the "Bulls and Bears" with new scenery, new properties, and one of the very best of stock companies, is not a success, we will look to the bulls and bears themselves for an explanation.

WOOD'S THEATER.—This house opens this evening with "Donald McKay," the Hero of the Modoc War, with Mr. Oliver Doud Byron in the title role, supported by Mr. Macaulay's excellent new company. Mr. Byron is a talented young actor, as many of our amusement seekers can testify. The play selected is a romantic drama of great interest, and the support offered is of the very best, so that one may safely predict an enjoyable evening for all who visit Wood's.

GULICK'S GRAND CENTRAL.—This house, in keeping with the demands of the public, offers an entirely new program for this evening, which includes many new stars of the variety stage, whose reputations are a sufficient guarantee of a pleasant evening's entertainment.

THE NATIONAL THEATER.—This house has added many new attractions to its excellent list of last week, retaining some of the more popular of its stars, among whom Burt Clark, the ever-popular Ethiopian comedian, who has succeeded in making himself a great favorite with the audiences of the National, ranks first.

A NEW European hotel was opened in Reid's buildings, No. 181 West Fourth street, to-day. The proprietors have, with an eye to business, thoroughly fitted up the upper portions of the building for hotel use, and prepared a large number of elegant sleeping apartments, which they will use in connection with their dining rooms and parlors. The dining rooms are handsomely furnished, and the prospects are that another has been added to the list of first-class restaurants and European hotels of our city.
